The Society

NOV 7 1818

The last volume issued by the Society three years ago commemorated its 75th Anniversary year and it was thought fitting to insert in that volume views of New York contemporary with its foundation. In the present volume it seemed desirable to remind our members of the aims and purposes for which the Society stands, by inserting in this volume several of the contemporary newspaper accounts of the Society's origin, together with extracts from the diary of Mr. Philip Hone written at that time. From these it can be seen that it is pre-eminently a Knickerbocker Society with most of our original and early members representing families descended from Holland stock. The perusal of these extracts should incite a feeling of pride in having the family name always appear on our roll of members.

Since the last volume was published, a Memorial Tablet to Washington Irving was unveiled under the auspices of our Society. A reproduction of the tablet forms the frontispiece of this volume, and other illustrations are inserted of the Washington Irving High School in the vestibule of which the tablet is set. Through the courtesy of The New York Historical Society, a reproduction of a daguerreotype of Washington Irving taken by Plumb between the years 1843 and 1849 and presented by him to the mother of our present president, forms one of the illustrations, and an interesting "find" of a lost page of Doctor Francis' address on Irving is reproduced.

CLARENCE STORM,

Secretary.

EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES

AT A MEETING of several gentlemen, residents and natives of the City of New York, held at Washington Hotel, on Saturday evening, February 14th, 1835, to consider the expediency of establishing a Society to be composed of old residents of the City of New York and their descendants—

ABRAHAM BLOODGOOD, Esq., was called to the Chair, and WASHINGTON IRVING, Esq., appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting was briefly stated by Judge IRVING.

Doctor MANLEY offered the following resolution:

Which was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. SCHERMERHORN it was

The Chair appointed Mr. PETER SCHERMERHORN, Judge IRVING, A. R. WYCKOFF, HAMILTON FISH, and Doctor MANLEY, as such Committee.

WASHINGTON IRVING, Secretary.

At an adjourned meeting of citizens of New York, held for the purpose of forming a Society, to be composed of the residents of the City of New York and their descendants, at Washington Hotel, on Saturday evening, February 21st, 1835—

Mr. SCHERMERHORN presented a report from the Committee of seven, appointed at the last meeting to prepare a Constitution for the Society.

Mr. MULLIGAN offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

This Society shall be composed of those persons present at the adoption of the Constitution, who shall sign the same, and pay the sums thereby required, and of such other persons as shall be admitted members according to the provisions of the Constitution.

The Constitution reported by the Committee was then amended, by substituting, instead of the Monday in Easter week to be observed as the anniversary of the Society, "the sixth day of December in each year, unless that day fall on Sunday, in which case the anniversary shall be held on the seventh."

On motion of OGDEN HOFFMAN, Esq., the Constitution, as amended, was adopted as the Constitution and By-Laws of the Saint Nicholas Society of the City of New York, and was referred back to the same Committee to classify the several parts as Constitution and as By-Laws.

An adjourned meeting of this society will take place at Washington Hotel, THIS EVENING at half-past 7 o'clock. Particular attendance is requested, as business of importance will come before the meeting.

At the above meeting the Constitution and By-Laws were formally adopted and the first officers were elected.

Following is a reference to this meeting which appeared in the New York American on Wednesday evening, March 18th, 1835:

SAINT NICHOLAS SOCIETY.—Under this name a society has recently been organized in this city, composed of native New Yorkers and of the descendants of the old burghers.

Its objects are the promotion of good fellowship and social intercourse between old citizens, and charity towards those of them who may have fallen into decay.

A first celebration will be held, we understand, on Paus Monday. The list of officers will be found in another column.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY MEETING.

The New York Gazette and General Advertiser published on Tuesday morning, December 8th, 1835, the following account of the First Anniversary Meeting of the Society:

ST. NICHOLAS SOCIETY.

The first Anniversary meeting of the St. Nicholas Society of this city took place yesterday afternoon, at the City Hotel. After the installation of the officers elect, the members partook of a sumptuous dinner, got up in splendid style. The table was graced with numerous Dutch dishes including Supaan en Melk, Roolletjes, Kult, Kool Slaa, heet and koud, Gefruyt Pens, Oli-koekjes, Krulletjees, &c. The guests were—the Mayor of the city, the Hon. Daniel Webster, the Presidents of the St. George, St. Andrew, German and St. Patrick Societies, and the New England Society was represented by the talented barrister, Henry R. Storrs, Esq., each of whom delighted the company with appropriate remarks preparatory to their toasts. The solemnities of the occasion were performed by Bishop Onderdonk and the Rev. Dr. McCarree. The following were the regular toasts:

1. Our City, God Prosper it!—"Home, sweet Home."

2. This our first Anniversary. May Centuries hail the Day.

3. St. Nicholas, our Patron: He has been bountiful to us, may he extend his gifts to our children's children.

4. Our Sister Societies: Their noble example in the general cause we regard with a sister's pride.

5. Old Recollections and Associations: Strengthened by time, and endeared to us by the remembrance of the virtues and examples of our fathers!

6. Our State: Bright in her past career—blest in her present prosperity—glorious in her future prospects—her sons may well be proud of her.

7. The Saint Nicholas Society: The gathering together of the lost tribes of Manhattoes.

8. The Fair of Manhattan.

The Hon. E. Livingston, who was invited, sent a note of regret that it was not in his power to attend the anniversary of the Saint Nicholas Society.

F. Cottenet, Esq., President of the French Benevolent Society, also sent a polite note of regret that he could not attend, and expressed the honor conferred upon the Society of which he was the presiding officer.

Among the Volunteers which were offered through the President, at the hour of our departure were the following: By his Honor the Mayor—The Descendants of the Knickerbockers—Reverence for the memory and love of the customs of their ancestors, and a full share of the enterprising spirit of the age, are the characteristics of those who claim the tutular protection of St. Nicholas.

By Mr. LORILLARD, President of the German Society—Unser Velovadte Stadt.

By CAMPBELL P. WHITE, Esq., President of St. Patrick's Society—Enlightened legislation, equal laws and security of property have made a small village a great city—a feeble colony a powerful commonwealth.

Mr. MAXWELL, President of St. Andrews—Jan Joris Ropelje and his wife Sarah—The first Europeans by whom the injunction “increase and multiply,” was practically enforced in the New Netherlands.

By PHILIP HONE—Charles Joseph Latrobe, the accomplished gentleman and the liberal traveller who had the discernment to see, and the honesty to report us as we are.

By Pres't DUER—The Captives of this Society, adopted with Roman Policy into the body politic—they speedily become genuine sons of St. Nicholas and visit in secret the children of misfortune, concealing the hand which bestows their bounty.

By HY. R. STORRS, Esq., President of the New England Society—The memory of Frederick Adrian Van Dor Kemp—a fearless patriot, a finished scholar and an accomplished gentleman.

By J. LANG—The Religious and Charitable Institutions of our country—the soul of the body politic.

By SAMUEL G. RAYMOND—Manhattan Women, Manhattan Wine, in short, any thing Manhattan but Manhattan Water.

By G. P. ROGERS—The olden times of the city of New York.—May the descendants of New Yorkers never forget them.

By JAMES C. JOHNSON—The Primitive Days and Manners of our Ancestry in Nieuw Nederlandt renowned alike for true Dutch comfort and generous hospitality. We their descendants on the same soil, love their virtues and cherish their Memory.

The following Extracts are printed from the original Diary of Philip Hone as throwing a sidelight upon the formation and two of the early anniversary meetings of the Society.

February 14, 1835.—I attended this evening a meeting at Washington Hall of a number of New Yorkers, with a design to form a regular Knickerbocker society, as a sort of set-off against St. Patrick's, St. George's and more particularly the New England. The meeting was large and exceedingly respectable; there were the Irvings, Moores, McVickars, Renwicks, Rapelje, Stuyvesant, Laight, Fish, Wilkins, the Schermerhorns, Brinckerhoffs, Costers, Colden, etc.,—a goodly show of good fellows who will not disgrace their ancestors. Abr. Bloodgood was chairman and Washington Irving secretary. A committee was appointed, consisting of Peter Schermerhorn, Judge Irving, Alexander Wyckoff, Hamilton Fish, Dr. Manley, and the President and Secretary, to report a constitution, by-laws, etc., to a future meeting. I suppose we shall have a few annual dinners, which will be pretty much all that will grow out of this project.

December 6, 1836.—In the evening I attended the anniversary meeting and dinner of the St. Nicholas Society. Gulian C. Verplanck, the newly elected President, presided, with Washington Irving and John A. King as Vice-Presidents. There were not more than fifty or sixty sat down to dinner, and it was rather a forced concern. I doubt if there will be another anniversary. There is great difficulty in keeping up with the other National Societies, even with the advantage they have in forming a rallying-point for their respective countrymen lately arrived among strangers, a sort of home abroad, affording strong claims upon national sensibility; but in our society there is no such bond of union, and the zeal with which some of its founders entered into the undertaking has visibly subsided.

I made a short speech complimentary to Washington Irving, and his last book, in which I descanted upon the mercantile character of the Country, and took occasion to introduce the name of Mr. Astor, and eulogize the Spirit with which he engaged in the enterprise which forms the subject of the work. I closed the remarks with the following toast:

“Astoria—Commercial Enterprise immortalized by the pen of genius.”

Irving was sensibly affected by my remarks to which he replied with great feeling and some embarrassment and afterwards left his seat and came around to me to make his acknowledgment.

December 6, 1838.—The anniversary dinner of the St. Nicholas Society was held to-day, at the Amercian Hotel. Mr. Cozzens gave as good a dinner as I ever sat down to; all excellent, hot and well served, and the wines capital. There was the usual quantity of toasting and speaking. The President (Mr. Verplanck) made a long address, in the form of an annual report of the state of the society, in his quaint, amusing style. Dr. Francis, as Physician-General, was very happy. I made a short address when called upon, and concluded with the following toast: New Yorkers, “at home” to all the world; let them not forget that they are masters of the house.

Final Report of the Washington Irving Memorial Committee

Presented to the Society and read at the Stated Meeting held May 1st, 1913. A reproduction of the Washington Irving Tablet forms the frontispiece to this volume.

By the courtesy of the Board of Education the members of the St. Nicholas Society were invited to attend the ceremonies of presentation and unveiling of the Washington Irving Tablet presented by the Society, at the High School building, on the one hundred and thirtieth anniversary of the birth of Washington Irving, April the third, 1913.

The occasion was graced by a representative attendance of members of the Society, distinguished members of the Board of Education and more than fifteen hundred of the faculty and scholars of the Washington Irving High School.

The exercises, arranged by Principal William McAndrew, were marked with success and were especially impressive in the details of the formal unveiling, performed by Mr. Suydam, assisted by three beautiful young girl-students, standing on the Irving Place steps of the building in the presence of the thronged populace, who viewed with evident delight this entrée of our President into the historic field of the moving picture, amid the melody of choral song by fifteen hundred girl voices.

Preceding this event addresses were delivered in the Auditorium, as quoted in part herein, from the official report of Principal McAndrew.

Unveiling of the Washington Irving Tablet at the Washington Irving High School, on Thursday, April 3d, at 3.15 P.M.

PROGRAM.

Address by WILLIAM D. MURPHY, Chairman, Washington Irving Memorial Committee.

Presentation of the Tablet by WALTER L. SUYDAM, President, Saint Nicholas Society.

Acceptance by Hon. FRANK D. WILSEY, Chairman Building Committee of the Board of Education.

Address by Hon. JOHN GREEN, Member of the Board of Education.

Address by Hon. THOMAS W. CHURCHILL, President of the Board of Education.

Singing by 1500 scholars of the Washington Irving High School, massed in Irving Place in front of the building.

Extracts from speeches at the unveiling of the tablet presented by the St. Nicholas Society to the Washington Irving High School, April 3; such extracts being those which refer directly to the Society.

Hon. FRANK D. WILSEY, Chairman, Committee on Buildings, Board of Education:

"St. Nicholas, whose name has been taken by the Society which honors us this afternoon, was the protector of the young and helpless; of the weak against the strong; of the poor against the rich; the friend of mariners and travelers; the kindly protector of young girls."

"His festival is the most joyous of the year, now celebrated in the evening, December 24. Among the old Dutch inhabitants of New York, this jolly saint was celebrated with great rejoicing. His name with which every child is familiar, was in Dutch "Santa Klaus."

He and his jolly wife came frolicing into the houses carrying bundles of cakes and toys upon their backs for the good boys and good girls of the family. It is a very happy selection that these distinguished gentlemen here have made in choosing this jolly old saint as their patron. It is quite a suitable act that they have chosen to come to us with a present, the beautiful and artistic work of Victor Brenner which honors Washington Irving, a founder of their society. As Chairman of the Committee on Buildings, which is still in possession of this school house, I have the honor to accept this tablet on behalf of the Board of Education, and to express to the members of the St. Nicholas Society gratitude of that Board, the thanks of the Washington Irving High School, and the commendation of all patriotic citizens who will rejoice at this evidence of public spirit and generosity displayed by the Society."

Address by WM. D. MURPHY, ESQ., was a review of the life of Washington Irving; of the history of the St. Nicholas Society, and its representation of the spirit of old New York; of its cosmopolitan nature; and of its relations to Washington Irving's memory.

Mr. Murphy related the origin of the project to present the tablet to the school; the appointment of the Washington Irving Memorial Committee, the bequest of Mr. Wandell; the selection of Victor Brenner as sculptor; the choice of a Washington Irving portrait; Irving's success in captivating literary England and America; his optimism; his uplift; his public services. In conclusion Mr. Murphy said: "Mr. President, of the St. Nicholas Society, the work of your committee is completed. The bronze has been placed at the portals of this temple of learning through which every day more than five thousand bright, girl students will pass, treading the highway to that educational advancement and literary culture which Washington Irving so fully typified."

MR. WALTER SUYDAM:

"On behalf of the St. Nicholas Society it is my pleasure to present to the Washington Irving High School a bronze memorial of the distinguished author whose name we honor and celebrate to-day."

HON. JOHN GREENE, representing High School Committee of the Board of Education:

"St. Nicholas Society has done well in selecting a public high school as the repository of a memorial like this. Its interests are in a particular degree those to which such memorials make a strong appeal. Gentlemen, you have shown a strong sense of fitness in choosing one of the citadels of the republic round whose walls should have seen memorials presented by other public spirited societies desiring to develop the souls of those who are capable of following in the steps of the great men and the great women whose services are commemorated. It gives me the greatest pleasure on behalf of the High School Committee to accept this enduring memorial of a great American, a great artist, and an altogether lovable, earnest, and gentle spirit."

HON. T. W. CHURCHILL, President of the Board of Education, whose address was upon the character of Washington Irving, said in the course of his remarks:

"This school is to be complimented in having won the friendship of the famous old St. Nicholas Society, which is presenting this beautiful and costly tablet to-day. I am informed that the Society has deposited with the principal of the school, miniature reproductions of this tablet which are to be given each year to that girl who most signally exemplifies the sweet, old-fashioned trait of amiability.

"I do not know of any more valuable service that the St. Nicholas Society could render the community than emphasis upon that quality of Washington Irving and of the Washington Irving School which is summed up in the adjective most frequently used in describing this man as the "genial" Irving.

"The world wants cheerfulness. It is the oil that lubricates the wheels of life. The schools need cheerfulness; it is the lure that draws children from the street. Youth is the time of brightness, of sunshine, of geniality. That girl or woman, boy or man, who lets loose upon the bright time of youth, its schooldays, any of the darkness of hate, or dislike, or envy, or jealousy, or meanness, or unkindness, commits a civic misdemeanor. Let him or her consider the life of the great man, born 130 years ago to-day, who lives forever in the hearts of Americans not so much because he was the great biographer of Mahomet, Goldsmith and Washington; not so much because he was the historian of the American Revolution; not so much because he described the regions of the world; but because in his books and in his life he was genial, companionable, frank and kindly and true."

Twelve of the small bronze replicas of the tablet were given to be awarded as prizes, two each year, as referred to in the address of President Churchill. Copies were also given to several members of the Board of Education and others taking part in the unveiling ceremonies; and a copy has been given to each of the following institutions: The New York Public Library, The New York

Historical Society, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, The American Numismatic Society, The Missouri Historical Society, all of which have formally acknowledged the receipt thereof.

Thus happily terminated an event conceived and carried out in full accord with the traditional spirit and purposes of this society, to preserve and emphasize the memories of Manhattan and the achievements of its eminent citizens.

It is gratifying to note that the placing of this tablet received much favorable comment both as to purpose and design and has been regarded as worthy of detailed record by the American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society in its annual report.

In conclusion your committee would record its appreciation of the courtesies extended by the members of the Board of Education, the Principal of the School and Mr. Snyder, the Architect of the Department, through whose kindness the attached photographs of the School Building were obtained, enabling this report to reveal something of the environment in which the Society has placed an enduring tribute to the memory of an honored citizen of old New York and a well loved son of Saint Nicholas.

Respectfully submitted, May the first, 1913.

ARTICLE I.

OF THE NAME OF THE SOCIETY.

SECTION I. The name of this Society shall be "The Saint Nicholas Society of the City of New York," and its objects shall be to afford pecuniary relief to indigent or reduced members of this Society and their widows and children; to collect and preserve information respecting the history, settlement, manners, etc., of the City of New York, and to promote social intercourse among its native citizens.

ARTICLE II.

OF MEMBERS.

SECTION I. Any person of full age, in respectable standing in society, of good moral character, who was a native or resident of the City or State of New York prior to the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, or who is a descendant of any such native or resident, or who is a descendant of a member of this Society, shall be eligible as a member. But whenever, and as long as there shall be six hundred and fifty members of the Society, no one shall be elected to membership unless he be the descendant in the oldest male line of a member or former member, and in all elections to membership the ballot shall be first taken on the candidates who may be the descendants of members.

SECTION 2. Candidates for admission must be proposed by one member and seconded by another who shall state, in writing, the name, place of residence, profession or occupation of the candidate and his qualifications for membership; also that they know him personally, and that he is a proper person to become a member of the Society.

The name of every candidate, with those of his proposer and seconder, shall be sent to the Secretary twenty days before he can be balloted for.

Members shall be elected by the Board of Officers.

A candidate must receive three-fourths of the votes of the officers present, and two black-balls shall exclude.

A rejected candidate shall not be again proposed within six months after such rejection.

SECTION 3. Each member shall, immediately on his election, sign the Constitution and pay to the Treasurer his initiation fee and the annual dues for the current year, and shall not take his seat as a member until he shall have complied with the requisitions of this section; but such election shall be void if the member so elected shall fail to qualify as required by this section, within sixty days after notice of his election is mailed, addressed to him at the address specified in the Proposal Book of the Society.

SECTION 4. The initiation fee shall be twenty dollars, and each member shall annually pay the sum of five dollars (in advance for the ensuing year) on the anniversary meeting in each year.

SECTION 5. The payment at one time of one hundred dollars or more shall constitute a life member; and the member so paying shall, if not in arrears, be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee or annual dues or both.

SECTION 6. If any member neglect or refuse to pay his annual dues for the space of one year after the same shall become due, he shall be considered to have resigned his membership, and his name shall be stricken from the roll of the Society, unless some good reason for such neglect or refusal be presented to the Board of Officers, in which case the said Board may by resolution continue him as a member.

SECTION 7. Any member wishing to resign shall tender his resignation in writing, which may be accepted, provided the amount of dues (if any) for which said member may be in arrears shall be then paid up.

SECTION 8. Whenever a member shall, in the opinion of a majority of the whole Board of Officers, be guilty of conduct unbecoming a member of the Society, it shall be the duty of the Board to request him to present his resignation within a time specified by the Board, and upon his failure to present such resignation within such time, such member may be expelled by vote of not less than two-thirds of all the members of the Board of Officers, at least one month's previous notice, in writing, of the time and place of a hearing having been given to the member, by mailing or delivering to him a copy of the charges.

ARTICLE III.

OF THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY.

SECTION 1. There shall be annually elected, at the Stated Meeting in May, from among the members of this Society, a President, a First, a Second, a Third, and a Fourth Vice-President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and an Assistant Secretary, who, with twelve Managers, whose election is hereinafter provided for, shall constitute the "Board of Officers." There shall be elected at the next meeting for the election of officers, twelve Managers, who shall divide themselves into four classes of equal numbers each. The first class shall serve for one year, the second class for two years, the third class for three years, and the fourth class for four years; and at each annual election, after that first next ensuing, there shall be elected three Managers for the term of four years, and such additional number, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies for the remainder of the terms of the Managers whose places they fill. No Manager shall be re-eligible until one year after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been last elected. There shall also be elected at each annual election of officers, two Chaplains, two Physicians, and two Consulting Physicians.

SECTION 2. The election shall be by ballot, and a plurality of votes shall constitute a choice.

SECTION 3. The officers so elected shall be installed and shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices at the Stated Meeting immediately preceding the anniversary meeting.

SECTION 4. The President shall, when he is present, preside at all meetings of the Society, preserve order, put the question, and declare the decision. He, in conjunction with one of the Vice-Presidents, may call special meetings of the Society when they shall judge proper, and he shall call them when required by the Board of Officers; or when requested in writing by any nine members, specifying in such request the object for which such meeting is desired. He shall appoint the time and place of all meetings, and shall sign orders on the Treasurer from the Board of Officers.

SECTION 5. The Vice-Presidents shall assist the President in presiding at the meetings. The duties specified in the preceding section shall, in case of the inability to act of the President, by reason of his absence or sickness, devolve on the First Vice-President; and in the absence or sickness of both, on the Second Vice-President; and so on, according to rank; only that, in regard to signing orders on the Treasurer, each shall have equal powers with the President.

SECTION 6. The Managers shall constitute a Board for dispensing the Society's bounty, agreeably to the regulations and restrictions prescribed in this Constitution, or by the laws and resolves of this Society; and for this purpose, they shall meet at least once a month in Summer, and twice a month in Winter, and five shall be necessary to form a quorum. At their meetings only they shall decide on the application of claimants, and, if a majority of those present shall consent to grant relief, they shall recommend them, in writing, to the President and Vice-Presidents, either of whom is authorized to draw on the Treasurer for the sum specified in the recommendation of the Managers; provided that no more than twelve dollars be given to any one person in one year, except as provided in Article VI., Section 1, of this Constitution, or unless otherwise determined at a meeting of the Society; and provided, also, that the whole sum thus dispensed by the Managers and by the Society in one year, do not exceed the revenue of the Society for that year arising from the interest on the Permanent Fund (hereafter mentioned) and from the annual dues. The Managers shall likewise recommend to the attention of the Chaplains and Physicians such persons as they suppose might be benefited by their assistance.

SECTION 7. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the money and other property of the Society. He shall keep regular accounts of all receipts and disbursements, in suitable books provided for that purpose, which shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the members. He shall keep an account of the fees and dues that accrue, and shall appoint a proper and discreet person to collect the same, and shall allow such person a reasonable compensation therefor. He shall, at least once in every three months, report to the Board of Officers the names of the members whose dues remain unpaid, and the amount they respectively owe, specifying those whose dues have been in arrear more than a year. He shall preserve vouchers for all disbursements. He shall enter on his books each sum paid by him in consequence of the recommendation of the Board of Managers, the name of the President or Vice-President who signed the order, and the name of the person to whom the money was paid. He shall, at each Stated Meeting, present an abstract of his accounts, showing the sum received and expended since the last Stated Meeting of the Society; and likewise the whole amount received and expended since the previous anniversary festival, specifying the amount of the Permanent Fund, and amount of cash on hand, and what may become due before the next meeting of the Society, that they may, if they think proper, take order for the disposition thereof.

SECTION 8. The Secretary shall have the custody of all the records and journals of the Society and shall make a regular entry of all the proceedings at each meeting. He shall keep a roll of the members. He shall give notice through the post office or letter-delivery companies of all meetings, whether stated or special. He shall, under the direction of the Board of Officers, erase from the list of members the names of all such persons as shall, by the terms of the Constitution, have forfeited their title to membership, making a report thereof at the next meeting of the Society.

SECTION 9. In the absence of the Secretary, the duties specified by the last preceding section shall devolve on the Assistant Secretary, whose duty it shall be to assist the Secretary when present.

SECTION 10. The Chaplains shall perform the religious duties at the meetings of the Society, and shall by their counsel and advice promote harmony and good-will among the members. They shall also visit such sick and distressed persons as may be recommended to their attention by the Managers.

SECTION 11. The Physicians shall give advice and assistance to such sick or maimed person as may be committed to their care by the Managers.

SECTION 12. In case of the death, resignation or removal of any of the officers before the end of the year or term for which they were elected, the Society may, at any subsequent meeting, choose others in their room, in the mode prescribed in Section 2 of this article, to serve for the remainder of the term for which such officers were elected.

SECTION 13. The Board of Officers shall meet regularly on the Monday preceding each Stated Meeting. Special meetings may be called by the Secretary, under the direction of the President, or of the Vice-President acting in his stead, or of any three members of the Board of Officers. In addition to the duties conferred upon the Board by this Constitution, they shall likewise execute all such business as may from time to time be committed to them by any law or resolve of the Society; and they shall report their proceedings at every Stated Meeting of the Society. The presence of at least seven members shall be necessary for the transaction of business. They may, in their discretion, appoint a Sergeant-at-Arms, with such powers, and subject to such duties, as they may deem proper; and may allow him such compensation as they shall think reasonable.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1. The Committee of Finance shall consist of the President, the Vice-Presidents, and Treasurer; the President shall be Chairman of the Committee. They shall have the management of the Permanent Fund, and shall direct its investment. All funds and money belonging to the Society shall stand in the name of "The Saint Nicholas Society of the City of New York." The Committee shall, when moneys are to be disbursed from the Permanent Fund, or any amount transferred therefrom by resolution of the Society, give an order, in writing, to the Treasurer, for such disbursement or transfer. They shall have power to sell out stocks or other securities belonging to the Society, and to reinvest the same. They shall report their proceedings at each Stated Meeting.

SECTION 2. There shall be appointed annually, at the meeting when the officers of the Society are elected, a Committee of Accounts, consisting of five members, not being officers, whose duty it shall be to examine the books and accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer, and to examine the proceedings of the Committee of Finance and of the Managers, and to report thereon to the Society at its next meeting.

SECTION 3. There shall be appointed annually, at the meeting when the officers of the Society are elected, a Committee of Installment, consisting of two members, who shall, on the anniversary festival, present and install the officers elected for the ensuing year.

SECTION 4. The first class shall serve for one year, the second class for two years, and the third class for three years ; and at each annual election thereafter there shall be elected two members of said Committee for the term of three years, and such additional number, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies for the remainder of the terms of the members whose places they fill. Pending such election the President shall have power to fill vacancies ad interim.

No member elected to this Committee shall be re-eligible until one year after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been last elected.

SECTION 5. All Committees (special as well as standing) whose appointment is not otherwise directed by the Constitution or By-Laws, or a resolution of the Society, shall be nominated by the presiding officer and confirmed by the Society.

ARTICLE V.

OF THE FUNDS.

SECTION 1. All sums received as initiation fees, donations, bequests, etc., and all sums paid by life members, shall be invested under the direction of the Committee of Finance as a Permanent Fund, to be loaned out at interest, or invested in stocks or public funds. And if at any time the interest arising from the Permanent Fund, together with the amount received from the annual dues, be more than the exigencies of the poor and the current expenses of the Society require, the surplus shall be carried to the Permanent Fund. In like manner, if the Stewards shall at any time receive more money than is required for the expenses of the anniversary festival, the surplus shall be paid over to the Treasurer, and be carried to the Permanent Fund.

SECTION 2. None shall be objects of the Society's bounty (except as provided in the preceding section) but such members thereof as shall become indigent, and children of a member of this Society.

SECTION 3. As the benevolent and charitable objects of this Society will be greatly promoted by a social intercourse among its members, the Society shall celebrate its anniversary by a dinner, on the 6th day of December in each year, unless that day fall on Sunday, in which case the anniversary shall be held on the following day, and the Society may at any Stated Meeting provide for other festivities.

The ribbon shall be orange, ribbed and watered, $1\frac{3}{8}$ inches in width and 1 inch in displayed length, suspended from a gold or silver gilt bar $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in depth and $1\frac{7}{16}$ inches in breadth, bearing the words “St. Nicholas” in block letters, in relief.

Address of Dr. Francis

Extract from an address delivered before The New York Historical Society December 6th, 1859, by Dr. John W. Francis (a well-known old New Yorker and an original member of this Society) entitled "Reminiscences of Washington Irving." Dr. Francis' address was printed in "Irvingiana, a Memorial of Washington Irving" (New York 1860) under the title of "Characteristics of Washington Irving."

In hunting for material concerning Irving to incorporate in this volume, the rarities of The New York Historical Society were searched into and the original manuscript of the address of Dr. Francis was there discovered. While looking over this a loose page, the page containing this extract, dropped out, and suggested a comparison of the manuscript with the address as printed, and so it was found that this page had been wholly omitted, having probably never come into the printer's hands.

The following is of peculiar interest as it appears here in print for the first time, and also because it relates exclusively to Irving's connection with our Society.

"On this fleeting occasion I must not omit to notice an event in the annals of humanity which shows how deeply Mr. Irving's feelings were involved in whatever added to the interests or honour of his native New York. He had for years observed the character and import of the many social institutions which so strikingly glorify this city and yield beneficial results to the people of different origins here clustered in the metropolis, while to his amazement he was struck with the circumstances that no adequate special organization had been as yet created for charitable, benevolent and social purposes by his own countrymen, exclusively for their benefit, as a distinct society. Shortly after his last return from Europe he summoned with little ado a meeting of his prominent Knickerbocker friends, pointed out the benefits and the patriotism blended with such a design and forthwith was founded the St. Nicholas Society in 1835. Mr. Irving declined accepting the office of President but repeatedly honored the anniversary meetings of the association in person. Among the transactions of his long life there were few in which he exhibited more energy than in his relations with the formation of this prominent benevolent organization of native citizens. He never appeared at their annual festival without receiving the strongest testimonial of their appreciation of his services as their founder, in the rapturous applause which greeted his presence, evincing how numerous were his friends and how ardent their affections. His joyous and benignant expression and those quaint illustrations of New Amsterdam two hundred years ago which enriched the board and decorated the walls of the Hall of Entertainment gave a zest to the scene not easily to be forgotten. When the History of the St. Nicholas' Charity shall have been written the recorded fact that a regular descendant of the redoubted hero Peter the Headstrong was selected as its first president it can only add to the richness of retrospective associations in this world, so full of joy and of melancholy, yet abounding in good."
